

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 17, 2016

CONTACT: Kimberly Larson, 623-930-2989, Public Information Office

LIVE AT THE LIBRARY MUSIC SERIES PRESENTS
CHILDREN'S CONCERT BY THE MILL AVE CHAMBER PLAYERS
Free Concert Based on Children's Literature

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. –Join the Mill Ave Chamber Players (MACP) for a concert of music based on famous literature for children, including Aesop's Fables and a world premiere by bassoonist and composer, Thomas Breadon, on Thursday, March 24, 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the Glendale Main Library, 5959 W. Brown St.

Mill Ave Chamber Players are a professional woodwind quintet comprised of flute, oboe, clarinet, horn, and bassoon as the core ensemble. Wrapping up its eighth successful season bringing chamber music to the Valley, the group seeks to strengthen communities by presenting quality chamber music performances across the Valley. For the third consecutive year, MACP received the Performing Arts Partnership Grant from the city of Glendale to continue the 25 year-old "Live at the Library" series at the Glendale Public Library.

This season's final Live at the Library performance will present "Jacome Duo, Flamenco Guitar and Dance," on Thursday, April 28 at 6:30 p.m. Concerts for this series at the Glendale Public Library are free and open to the public. Live at the Library is supported by the Glendale Performing Arts Partnership Grant, the city of Glendale and the Mill Ave Chamber Players. Call 623-930-3573 for more information, or visit www.glendaleaz.com/library.

###